Numb. 13605.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 21, to Tuesday December 24, 1793.

Whitehall, December 23.

THE Diſpatches, of which the following are a Copy and Extracts, were received laſt Night from Toulon by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

SIR, Toulon, November 18, 1793.

ON the Evening of the 15th Inſtant Fort Mulgrave, ſituated on the Heights of Balaguier, one of the moſt eſſential Poſts that cover this Town and Harbour, was vigorouſly and repeatedly attacked by a large Corps of the Enemy. I have particular Pleaſure in mentioning, that, on this Occaſion, the very ſpirited Exertions of the Britiſh Troops, ſtationed at Fort Mulgrave, conſiſting of a Detachment of the 2d Battalion of the Firſt or Royal Regiment of Foot, commanded by Captain Duncan Campbell, and of a Detachment of the Royal Artillery, commanded by Lieutenant Lemoine, were the principal Means of repulſing the Enemy, and ſaving that important Poſt.

The Enemy, from the corroborating Accounts of different Deſerters, are ſaid to have loſt in this Attack about 600 Men, killed and wounded. Our Loſs, including the Spaniards, Neapolitans, and Sardinians, amounted only to 61. Among the wounded were Captain Duncan Campbell of the Royals, and Lieutenant Lemoine of the Royal Artillery, who, I am happy to add, are now in a favorable State of Recovery.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

CHA. O'HARA.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas.

Extract of a Letter from their Excellencies the Commiſſioners at Toulon to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, dated Toulon, November 23, 1793.

WE had the Honor of receiving His Majeſty's Commiſſion, together with Inſtructions for the Regulation of our Conduct, on the 14th Inſtant.

On the 20th we deſired a Deputation of the Inhabitants to attend us at the Governor's Houſe. His Excellency thought it beſt, for the ſake of avoiding all Miſunderſtanding, to ſpeak on this Occaſion from a written Paper, of which we have the Honor to incloſe a Copy.

We then read, according to His Majeſty's Commands, a Declaration in His Majeſty's Name; a Copy of which is incloſed.

We delivered Copies of theſe Papers to the Chief of the Deputation, and directed them to be printed, publiſhed and circulated as generally as poſſible.

We had the Pleaſure to obſerve, that His Majeſty's gracious and honorable Declaration was received with the ſtrongeſt Marks of Gratitude and Satisfaction.

His Excellency Governor O'Hara's Speech to the Deputation of Inhabitants on the 20th of November, 1793.

GENTLEMEN,

AS ſoon as the King was informed of the Events which had taken Place at Toulon, His Majeſty was deſirous to give an authentic Proof, not only of the Satisfaction which He had experienced from theſe Events, but alſo of His entire Approbation of the Engagements which had been entered into, in His Name, with the Town of Toulon. His Majeſty was alſo deſirous to give you a poſitive Aſſurance that He will punctually fulfil thoſe Engagements.

His Majeſty is ſenſible that the Poſſeſſion of this Town, under all the Circumſtances in which it was accepted, preſents to His Attention Objects of the greateſt Importance, and lays Him under the moſt ſacred Obligations. His Majeſty has already taken, and will continue to take, every Meaſure, which Circumſtances will permit, for the Protection of the Town and of it's Inhabitants. With a View of providing for theſe Objects, and of fulfilling, as effectually as poſſible, the other Duties which ariſe from the preſent Situation of His Majeſty with reſpect to the Town and Inhabitants of Toulon, He has thought proper to confide confide to Lord Hood, Sir Gilbert Elliot, Baronet, and to myſelf, a Commiſſion, which was lately delivered to us, under the Great Seal of England.

By this Commiſſion we are authorized to act, in His Majeſty's Name, in the Direction of the Affairs and Civil Intereſts of Toulon, as alſo of all other Places and Diſtricts in France, which may be occupied by His Majeſty's Arms, or come into His Poſſeſſion; and there to provide for the Eſtabliſhment of good Order and of a regular Government, for the impartial Aminiſtration of Juſtice, and the Protection of Perſons and Property.

Theſe, Gentlemen, are the Powers, immediately relative to the Affairs and Concerns of Toulon, with which His Majeſty has been pleaſed to intruſt us, and which we have thought proper to impart to you. I will not add any Thing reſpecting the honorable Intentions and generous Diſpoſitions of His Majeſty, becauſe they will be more particularly and more ſatisfactorily explained to you by a DECLARATION, which, by His Order, we ſhall addreſs to the Inhabitants of Toulon, and publiſh in His Name. I ſhall now conclude by reading it to you.

DECLARATION of the KING.

WE the underſigned, Commiſſioners Plenipotentiary of His Majeſty the King of Great Britain, do hereby publiſh, by His Orders and in His Name, the following Declaration.

HIS Britannic Majeſty having been informed of the Circumſtances under which the Town, Harbour, and Forts of Toulon, and the Ships in the ſaid Harbour, have been intruſted to Vice-Admiral Lord Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in the Mediterranean, and of the Declaration and Proclamations publiſhed by the ſaid Vice-Admiral, as well as of the Declaration made to him on the Part of the Inhabitants and People of Toulon, has thought fit, for the further Satisfaction of the ſaid Inhabitants and People, and for the full Explanation of His Royal Intentions, to declare as follows.

I. When Monarchy ſhall be reſtored in France, and a Treaty of Peace concluded, ſtipulating, in Favor of His Majeſty and His Allies, the Reſtitution of all Conqueſts made by France during the War, and a juſt Indemnification for the Loſſes and Expences thereby incurred, and a proper Security for the future, His Majeſty will cauſe the Town, Forts, and Harbour of Toulon, together with the Ships and Stores therein, to be reſtored, according to the Engagement entered into by the ſaid Vice-Admiral.

II His Majeſty has given Directions that the moſt effectual Meaſures ſhall be taken for the Protection of the Perſons and Property of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Town, and for procuring them the Supplies of Proviſions and other Articles of which they may ſtand in Need; and His Majeſty is alſo graciouſly pleaſed to approve of continuing all Perſons who held Civil or Military Employments in their reſpective Places and Occupations, as far as Circumſtances and the Good of the Common Cauſe will permit.

III. His Majeſty will do every Thing in His Power, and in Concert with His Allies, to repel any Attacks which may be made againſt Toulon, and to extend His Protection to all thoſe who may be deſireable to have Recourſe to it, under certain Conditions.

IV. His Majeſty ſincerely wiſhes the Happineſs of France, but by no Means deſires, on this Account, to preſcribe any particular Form of Government. The King claims the Right of taking a Part, only becauſe the Anarchy which now deſolates that Country threatens the Tranquillity of His own Subjects and that of the other Powers of Europe, whoſe Safety and Peace materially depend on the Re-eſtabliſhment of Order in France, and of a regular Syſtem, which may hold out to them a ſecure Ground of Negotiation and Friendſhip: And His Majeſty does not heſitate to declare, that the Re-eſtabliſhment of Monarchy, in the Perſon of Louis XVII. and the lawful Heirs of the Crown, appears to Him the beſt Mode of accompliſhing theſe juſt and ſalutary Views. This Form of Government has not only prevailed in France from the earlieſt Times, but, being capable of ſuch Limitations as may ſuit the reſpective Circumſtances of different Nations, has been proved by Experience to be the beſt adapted, in great Countries, to unite the Advantages of Security and Order with real Liberty.

Such a Syſtem, ſubject to ſuch Modifications as may hereafter be made therein in a regular and legal Manner, when Tranquillity ſhall have been reſtored in France, would afford to His Majeſty the beſt and moſt pleaſing Proſpect of terminating the Evils and Miſeries now endured by the French Nation, and of the Renewal of a regular and amicable Intercourſe between that Country and other States.

It is to theſe great Ends that His Majeſty's Meaſures will be directed; and His Protection and Aſſiſtance will be extended, as far as Circumſtances will admit, to all thoſe who manifeſt their Deſire to concur in ſo ſalutary a Work.

Whitehall, December 24.

ON Monday the 8th of July laſt the Legiſlative Council and Aſſembly of the Province of Upper Canada waited on his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, praying that he would be pleaſed to tranſmit the following Addreſſes to His Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Legiſlative Council of the Province of Upper Canada.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legiſlative Council of your Province of Upper Canada, in Legiſlature aſſembled, moſt humbly preſume to expreſs our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty in the preſent Situation of Public Affairs.

It is with Aſtoniſhment and Grief we have marked the Progreſs of that unruly Spirit of Innovation and Turbulence, which has actuated the Conduct of a prevailing Party in France.

The Introduction of a Reform of Government, mutually accepted, and ſanctioned by the moſt ſolemn Obligations, ſeems to have been the Signal for unfixing eſtabliſhed Opinions, and bringing forward thoſe deluſive Projects, which in all Ages have been held out to the Multitude by their inſidious Leaders; for affording Pretences to a Party, who, having propagated their Sentiments by Aſſaſſination and Slaughter, and familiarized their Nation to Scenes of Horror, have finally led them to the Murder of a mild and benevolent Sovereign.

With Scorn and Indignation we have heard of Attempts to introduce the ſame levelling Spirit, and to juſtify theſe atrocious Meaſures, in Great Britain and Ireland. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that the prompt and zealous Exertions of our Fellow Subjects at Home, in reſiſting theſe wild Encroachments, produced Emotions of moſt grateful Sympathy among the loyal Inhabitants of this remote Province.

The Impulſe of Britiſh Reſentment againſt ſuch Attempts has, we doubt not, been communicated to the the moſt diſtant Parts of the Britiſh Empire; and, from our own Feelings, we are convinced that all your Majeſty's People are influenced by a ſtrong and uniform Principle of Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and of Deteſtation againſt the Perpetrators of thoſe foul Deeds, which have brought a laſting Diſgrace on their Country. Satisfied as we are that by our free Conſtitution we enjoy all the Benefits that human Policy can beſtow, our firſt Prayer is, that we may long continue to receive them under your Majeſty's paternal Influence; our next is, that the Miſeries of Civil Diſcord in France may give Way to the Bleſſings of regular Government, and Tranquillity be reſtored to Europe.

Signed, by Order of the Legiſlative Council,
William Oſgoode, Speaker.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Houſe of Aſſembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Legiſlature aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Houſe of Aſſembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Legiſlature aſſembled, approach your Throne with Gratitude and Affection.

In this remote but flouriſhing Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, where we have found Shelter by your Majeſty's paternal Care and Clemency, the Fame of thoſe Tumults and Diſorders that live in Europe hath but lately arrived; but conceiving that, at a Period ſo important, it is the Duty of all good Men and faithful Subjects to manifeſt themſelves to their King and Country, we beg Leave to lay before you our Loyalty and Love; and if it ſhould be deemed neceſſary to add to our tried Zeal and Affection, we aſſure your Majeſty that no Exertion on our Part ſhall be wanting to convince our Fellow Subjects, that the foremoſt Rank is our Station amongſt thoſe who ſtand forth for the Protection and Defence of their King and Country.

We cannot advert to the ſacrilegious Murder in France without Horror and Abhorrence of the Men and Principles which have effected it: But as a Work of Evil ſometimes produces Good, we cheriſh the Hope, that a Conduct ſo baneful to every Precept of Religion and Law will ſerve to rivet the Loyalty and Attachment of our Fellow Subjects, as it has our's, to the beſt of Kings, and of Conſtitutions the moſt excellent.

By Order of the Aſſembly,
J. M'Donell, Speaker.

ON Tueſday the 9th of July laſt his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor prorogued the Legiſlature of Upper Canada to the 26th Day of September, and made the following Speech.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen,

IT gives me great Satisfaction that, by your unremitting Diligence, the Public Buſineſs of the Seſſion has been ſo far tranſacted, that I am enabled to conſult your perſonal Convenience, and to diſmiſs you, at an early Period, to your ſeveral Reſidences.

It is with Pleaſure I perceive that, agreeably to my Recommendation, you have new modelled a Militia Bill, and provided ſuch ſalutary Laws as are ſuitable to the preſent Condition of the Province.

The Act for the gradual Abolition of Slavery in this Colony, which it has been thought expedient to frame, in no Reſpect meets from me a more chearful Concurrence, than in that Proviſion which repeals the Power heretofore held by the Executive Branch of the Conſtitution, and precludes it from giving Sanction to the Importation of Slaves; and I cannot but anticipate, with ſingular Pleaſure, that ſuch Perſons as may be in that unhappy Condition, which ſound Policy and Humanity unite to condemn, added to their own perſonal Protection from all undue Severity, by the Law of the Land, may from henceforth look forward with Certainty to the Emancipation of their Offſpring.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen,

Should the Neceſſity of any further Reviſion or Amendments of the Ordinances of the late Province of Quebec attract your Notice during the Receſs, I doubt not but in the next Seſſion, by carrying ſuch Improvements into Execution, you will exemplify that diſtinguiſhing Excellence in the Britiſh Conſtitution, of which we daily experience the Benefit, and which has been tranſmitted to us by our Anceſtors as the firmeſt Security of the Public Proſperity.
